IN MEMORIAM.

[The following letter of condolence was received too late for our last issue:—Ed.]

I received the sad message yesterday of Uncle Creel's death and very sorry indeed that circumstances were such that I could not attend the funeral.

When I say he was the best man I ever knew the assertion may seem to the readers a very broad one, yet if they will go to the Gradyville vicinity the people rich and poor, black and white, will bear out my statement.

I have known him for 50 years and more and I have never known a time when he was not ready to divide with any one what he had or to go on missions for his fellow man, or to pray unto his God anywhere, at any time, for any body who asked the favor. He never knew how to say no.

At one time he possessed several thousand dollars, but on account of his kindness to every body, and his indulgence to his own family, he died a poor man so far as this world goes, but thank God that is not very far; and in the true sense, he was a very rich man—rich beyond measure. If there are elevated seats in heaven and there is one seat just a little higher than any other, Uncle Creel Yates will be on the top round, wearing a shining crown.

He was one of the few men in Kentucky who lived more than his three-score and ten who never knew the taste of liquor. He was the only man I ever knew who always did unto others as he would have them do unto him. His great Christian character was always most prominent in his afflictions and misfortunes, being at himself, conservative and level-headed, with presence of mind to think before speaking or acting, and when he took a stand for the right all the powers upon earth could not move him from his convictions.

The courts of Adair county will miss him as a fair-minded juror; his own neighborhood will miss him and his example; his Church and Association will miss his work and influence; his children will miss his love and protection every day and hour. No man ever lived who was more faithful to his wife and children nor who made any more sacrifices for their pleasure. He thinks to-day that surely his memory and his example will live in Adair county for ages. I have often wondered why there were not more men like Uncle Creel; but pardon me for saying so much about his personal character. I will say no more, yet I know of whom I write.

FROM NEBRASKA.

POWELL, NEB., Jan. 18, 1902
Editor of News:

You will please find enclosed $1 to apply on my subscription.

I thought I would write from this part of God's vineyard, thinking some of your many readers might be interested in seeing a few lines from here.

This is a good farming country and also a stock country. We were out very short on a corn crop last year, but the wheat crop was fairly good—from 15 to 35 bushels per acre, and a splendid quality. Corn is very scarce and high. It is worth 60 to 70 cents per bushel.

A great deal of stock has been shipped out of this country since last summer, on account of the drouth. The people will be hard up here until we get another crop. There have been great changes here since I came, in 1876. Land was worth then $2.50 to $10.00 per acre; now it is worth from $10.00 to $40.00 per acre. We have a good class of citizens here; they are from almost all parts of the world. We have good schools and churches of all denominations—that is a few of the good things that we are blessed with.

Now I will give you a few of the drawbacks, as all sections have their good and bad qualities. We sometimes have very hot and dry weather and some times it gets very cold, with high winds. We also have a few coyotes and Republicans, but as I said before all sections have their drawbacks. We have as good water here as any man could wish.

This has been the finest winter weather I ever saw. There were a few days of cold weather in December, but did not last long. There has been very little snow this winter, but there is plenty time yet for cold weather.

Powell is a small town 163 miles west of St. Joseph, Mo., on the St. Jo and Grand Island R. R.

Yours for success,

A Prominent Chicago Woman Speaks.

Rev. Roxa Tyler, of Chicago, Vice President Illinois Woman's Alliance, in speaking of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says: "I suffered with a severe cold this winter which threatened to run into pneumonia. I tried different remedies but I seemed to grow worse and medicine upset my stomach. A friend advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and I found it was pleasant to take and it relieved me at once. I am now entirely recovered, saved a doctor's bill, time and suffering, and I will never be without this splendid medicine again." For sale by M. Cravens.

OLD MISTRESS GRIMES

Yes, Grimes is dead, that good old man.

We never shall see him more! Nor shall we see that old blue coat All buttoned down before.

But who laments old Mistress Grimes, Who was to him so kind, And used to wear an old blue dress All buttoned up behind?

We've often heard his praises sung. But during all your life, Have you heard Saint or sinner sing Such praises to his wife?

Then would it not be just to write Upon his epitaph

That Grimes was good, like all good men,

With a good betterhalf.

For since by canning Satan did Our parent pair deceive, They've tried to cancel Adam's sin By charging it to Eve.

While many still the wrong pursue, Like those of former times, They'd steal the praise to others due And sing it all to Grimes.

Kentucky Legislature.

By a vote of 70 to 6, the Republicans refusing to vote, the House adopted the Weatherford resolution commending Schley and condemning the majority verdict of the Naval Court of Inquiry.

A bill has been introduced providing that the Seventh Congressional district shall be composed of the counties of Boone, Campbell, Gallatin, Grant, Harrison, Kenton, Owen and Scott.

President Utley, of the Senate, announced the Democratic Steering Committee of that body for the session as follows: J. Campbell Cantrill, chairman; George W. Hickman, Geo. T. Farris, W. O. Coleman and President Utley.

A bill has been introduced in the Senate which provides that all banks shall have returned to them by the State all money collected between 1893 and 1898 in excess of the requirements of the Hewitt law, which required of banks a tax of 75 per cent for the State alone, relieving them of all other obligations.

A bill has been introduced looking to the erection of a new Capitol. It provides for a commission of seven members to be appointed by the Governor with the Auditor and Treasurer as ex-officio members, the Governor to have the power of removal for cause; the money to be raised by a special annual State tax of two and one-half cents on the one hundred dollars' valuation for six years, provided, however, that said tax shall close when it shall no longer be necessary, $10,000 to be paid at once out of the State Treasury for the purpose of enabling the commissioners to proceed with the work. The Board of State House Commissioners is empowered and authorized to adopt such plans and specifications as it may deem best. No limit is placed on the cost of the building, except that it shall not exceed the amount of the special tax of two and one-half cents on the one hundred dollars for six years. It is estimated that about $1,000,000 will be the amount needed for the work.

Notice to the Public.

Why not live and enjoy good health. Don't let prejudice keep you from getting well when I have the remedies that will cure you. Bartlett's Challenging Tonic Bitters are the best on earth and are a sure cure for the sufferer. Women will find in them the greatest blessing ever placed in their reach. With their use strength and ambition will return; a healthy glow will brighten the complexion, the feeble constitution will change to one of stout and robust form and the ready glow of perfect health will appear where disease once was. The great virtue and merit of this wonderful remedy are being heralded in the strongest language by all those using them, as they are worth their weight in gold. They will restore and preserve the human health. If you are feeling miserable don't wait until you are down sick but use the tonic today. Hundreds of people are going about with a disordered stomach, liver or kidneys, or a dry hacking cough, with one foot in the grave, when a bottle of Bartlett's Challenging Tonic Bitters would do them more good than all the expensive doctors they have ever tried. Remember Bartlett's Challenge Tonic Bitters are the best in the world.

The Court of Appeals holds that while a physician may sell drugs to his patients, he cannot practice pharmacy for the general public unless he is a regular qualified pharmacist, holding the certificate required by law.

Mr. French Abbott, of Paris, a traveling salesman, was found in his room at a Somerset hotel in an unconscious condition. He died soon after. His death was due to heart disease. The remains were taken to Paris for burial.

In the Federal Court at Louisville J. M. McKnight, former president of the defunct German National Bank, of that city, who was convicted of embezzling the bank's funds, was sentenced to the penitentiary at Nashville, Tenn., for six years and fined $10. A motion for a new trial was overruled. The case will be appealed. McKnight has been tried four times.

A mob made an attempt to lynch Chas. Gaskins, a negro confined in the Flemingsburg jail, who was on trial for killing James Ryan, a white man, a year ago. The mob was fired on by some one across the street, and several members of it were sprinkled with bird shot. The mob then rapidly dispersed. On application of the Sheriff and the Circuit Court of Fleming, Gov. Beckham ordered the Frankfort company and the Lexington Gatling gun squad to Flemingsburg. Gaskins was convicted and sent to the penitentiary for 21 years. He was taken to Frankfort under the escort of the military.

H. M. Daviess, a merchant of Harrodsburg, was arranged before Hon. Calvin M. Fackler, United States Commissioner, of Danville, charged with sending a postal card to a firm of Louisville wholesale carpet dealers, on which was written, "Are you fakers?" Daviess had bought a bill of goods from the firm and through some mistake of the bookkeeper he had been damned five times after the bill had been paid. Daviess was held over in the sum of $200 to be tried before Judge Cochran, of the Federal Court.

The Secret of Long Life.

Consists in keeping all the main organs of the body in healthy, regular action, and in quickly destroying deadly disease germs.
